FREE SUMMER COMPUTER CLASSES AT SOLVANG LIBRARY Learn Photo Sharing, Smartphone Apps, Lost Device Tracking and More

Santa Barbara, CA – May 29, 2013

Solvang Library's popular series of computer classes will continue Friday, June 21 at 11 a.m., with "How to Share Photos & More with Dropbox & Google Drive." The free 50-minute class will teach participants how to easily share pictures, home/phone movies and documents with friends and family, using a smart device or computer. Solvang Library, a branch of the Santa Barbara Public Library System, is located at 1745 Mission Drive, in Solvang.

Volunteer Eric Delgado's classes are aimed at helping people become more comfortable with computers and especially mobile devices, including tablets, smartphones, e-readers and more. The summer classes will include "Smartphones II- Tips and Great Apps for Android or iPhone," on Friday July 26, and "Tablets II – iCloud, and How to Track Your Lost Device," on Friday August 23. Start time for all classes is 11 a.m. The classes are free of charge, and anyone can register online at www.sbplibrary.org or by calling the Solvang Library at 805-688-4214.

"Are you overwhelmed by all your modern technology devices? My goal is to teach you how to take advantage of your devices. This is your golden opportunity to ask every technical question you have ever had! Ever!" affirms instructor Eric Delgado. A Santa Ynez Valley native who graduated from SY High in 1999, Eric received his B.S in Computer Network Management, and started a computer setup and digital-life management company.

All Library programs are free and open to the public. Please call 805-688-4214, or visit the library system's website at www.sbplibrary.org to find out about programs and services of the Santa Barbara Public Library System.
